Numb. 6939.

Friday, January 17. 1724.

Moscow, December 24.

ON the 22d Instant arrived here his Czarish Majesty's Harbinger, and brought along with him the Repartition of the Lodgings for the whole Court. He has likewise Orders to prepare every thing in the Czar's Palace called Kremmeli against their Majesties Entry, which will be very pompous, the Guards of Prebozinski, with several other Regiments, having been new cloathed on this Occasion: The Officers also are to appear in rich Regimental Cloaths. The chief Inhabitants of this City are likewise ordered to be in Arms at the Day of their Majesties Entry, and the Merchants have agreed to form themselves into several Companies, and to distinguish themselves by particular Dresses and Colours, to make the Entry more splendid. Prince Menzikoff is expected here daily; his Domesticks are arrived here already, and have Orders to proceed with his Baggage towards Pultowa, where the said Prince will take upon him the chief Command of all the Russian Forces in those Parts.

Petersburg, Dec. 24. The rich Imperial Crown for the Czarina's Coronation is sent under a strong Guard to Moscow; the whole Court will be going thither shortly. New Gold and Silver Medals are struck in order to be distributed at the Coronation amongst Persons of Distinction; and a lesser sort of Coin has been made here to be thrown amongst the Populace. The great Officers of State are already set out for their respective Posts. An Express has been sent to Prince Galliczin, with Orders to hasten his March with all the Regiments under his Command; and to make the more speed, their Baggage is to be sent before as far as Veronitz, to be imbarkeed there upon the Volga as soon as it is open and navigable. The List of the Czar's Forces that are to act in Persia and upon the River Pruth, is now made publick. The Army under the Command of Prince Galliczin in Persia consists of 22 Regiments of Foot, and two of Dragoons of 2500 Men each, besides the whole Herd of the Calmucks: That under the Command of Prince Menzikoff is composed of 30 Regiments of Foot and five of Horse, so that this Army will be above 100,000 Men strong, and the other in Persia about 80,000 Men.

Stockholm, Jan. 1. The Transactions and Resolutions of the last Dyst are now published throughout the whole Kingdom; the Impots and Taxes that are laid to increase the Revenues of the Crown will begin to be collected this Month, and 'tis not doubted, but the Supplies that are ordered to be raised in the Year ensuing will be sufficient to answer the necessary Expences. Proper Funds also have been found out for maintaining the Forces and Fortifications, as likewise for the Expences of the Fleet, towards which the Mines being perfectly restored, will contribute considerably. The Militia is now regulated in such Manner, that both Officers and Soldiers are very well satisfied with their Quarters and other Assignations. The King is now in perfect Health, and 'tis reported, that his Journey for Germany remains still fixed.

Hambourg, Jan. 14. Letters from Mecklenbourg advise, that on the 10th Instant a Gentleman of the Duke's Bedchamber arrived at Domitz, who brought the News to the Gouvernor, that his Highness would be there in a little Time, and after a short Stay, make a Tour to Vienna. By the same Letters we are informed, that the Czar has augmented the Duke's Pension to 120000 Roubles, and that the latter has engaged himself to keep his Forces in Livonia and Courland always compleat and to the Czar's entire Disposition. The Duke's Brother, who continues his Residence at Grabau, has received a Letter from his Highness at Dantzick, which chiefly turns upon the Inheritance of the deceased Princess their Mother, but mentions nothing about the present Situation of the Affairs of the Dutchy.

Hague, Jan. 21. The Elector of Bavaria not having yet caused Payment to be made of the Sums borrowed upon his Jewels pledged at Amsterdam, though he lately gave Hopes that he would to the States Minister at Ratisbon, who had set out from thence to Munich to solicite this Affairs, Measures are taking to proceed to the Sale of the said Jewels on the 3d of next Month, pursuant to the Notice that has been given publicly in the Gazettes. M. le Coq, Minister sepm the King of Poland to the British Court, arrived here some Days past from Germany, intending to imbark with the first fair Wind for Great Britain.

The Royal BEAUTIFYING FLUID.

Which vastly transcends any Thing ever yet made publick, and is truly the noblest Secret in Nature to beautify the Face, Neck and Hands, as most of the first Quality have experienced: For it gives an inexpressible fine Air to the Features & the Face on the Spot, and a surprising handomeness to the Neck and Hands, on which last Account several Gentlemen as well as Ladies use it, and admire its superior Excellency, it being indeed far beyond any Paste, Powder, or Washball, for immediately making red or rough Hand exceedingly smooth, fine and delicately White it certainly takes away all disagreeable Redness, Spots, Pimpls, Heats, Roughness, Freckles, Morpheus, Worms in the Face, Sun-burn or any other discolouring, almost in an instant, and removes all Wrinkles so perfectly, as not only to conceal, but even to rectify the Defects of old Age, making the Skin become so truly and in comparably fine, clear, plump, soft, and charming fair, as to cause admiration in all Persons; and yet is nothing of Paint, but far exceeds it, for it brings the Skin, whether of the Face, Neck, or Hands and tho' brown, red or rough, to its natural Beauty and Perfection viz: a lasting youthful Fairness, Smoothness and Delicacy, which Paints only faintly imitate; neither is this Royal Beautifier prepared from the least Particle of Mercury or any thing Metaline, but is perfectly innocent and harmless, and may be given inwardly even to Children. It has also a pleasant Scent, will not soil the fine Linen, and is so far from being troublesome to use, that the nice Ladies think it pleasant. Is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toy-Shop, at the Rose and Crown, against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, near Arundel-street-End, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions. Beware of Counterfeits under other Names.

A short and infallible Cure for the Itch, or any Itching Humour, or scurvyick Breakings-out whatsoever, tho' it be never so bad, or of never so long standing, by a Specick Lectury, particularly adapted for that purpose, and many Years experienced: It is the most wonderful Secret in the World for the Cure of that troublesome Dilemma, and the Scourge: For in two or three times taking it certainly cleanses and rectifies the Blood and Juyces, to Admiration, frees them from all manner of Impurities and absolutely strikes at the very Root of the Itch or other Scurvyick Breakings-out, so as infallibly to accomplish a Cure in two or three Days, to a Miracle, and that with the greatest Ease and safety imaginable, without the least Trouble or Concoction. Is now sold only (since Mrs. Bradbury left off Shopkeeping) by Mr. Sanders, Haberdasher of Small Wares, at the Blue-Bell in Fenchurch-street, near Aldgate, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.
